

Fairtrade Tea Party Monday 22nd February 3pm – 5pm Langmans Restaurant, Church Street, Callington	Come along to Langmans Restaurant for the opening event of this year's Fairtrade Fortnight. Fairtrade Tea & Cakes will be served in aid of the Women to Women charity.
The Madhatter's Tea Party Saturday 27th February 11am onwards St Mary's Square, Callington	Fill your flask with Fairtrade Teas or Coffee & come along to Callington Mad Hatter's Tea Party. Silly hats are an optional necessity whilst Fairtrade drinks are an absolute must!
Fairtrade Fun Day Friday 5th March 2pm – 5pm Callington Town Hall, Callington	Fairtrade Fun Day, Judging of the Callington Fairtrade Logo or Character competition. Other activities include a raffle, quizzes, games & fairly traded crafts. Tea & coffee will also be on sale.
Meet Nicholas Adjei-Gyan Saturday 6th March 11am – 12am The Co-operative Café, Callington	Come along and taste the Co-operative's fabulous range of Fairtrade products & meet Nicholas Adjei-Gyan, the Head of Research & Development of Kuapa Kokoo, the world's largest co-operative of Fairtrade cocoa producers.
Children's African Arts & Crafts Workshop Saturday 6th March 2pm – 4pm Callington Library	Children's African Arts & Craft workshop - for children 5+ years of age. Make door hangers and other useful items using traditional African symbols and patterns. Younger children must be accompanied by an adult. Cost £1 per child.
“Question Time“ Saturday 6th March 2.30pm – 4pm Callington Community College	On the panel of “Question Time“ will be South East Cornwall's forthcoming parliamentary candidates & the topic is “International Development & Trade Justice.” Guest speakers include Nicholas Adjei-Gyan.